

ACCESSIBILITY

DMARehability remains committed to providing services in a manner that respects the dignity and independence of everyone, including people with disabilities.

Read our Accessible Customer Service Plan & Policy for Providing Goods and Services to People with Disabilities and our Multi Year Accessibility Plan to learn more.

If you recently visited one of our offices, and you would like to provide us with feedback, please take a moment to send us some feedback regarding our ability to meet your service needs.

DMARehability is committed to welcoming people with disabilities who are accompanied by a support person. Any person with a disability who is accompanied by a support person will be allowed to enter DMARehability's premises with his or her support person. At no time will a person with a disability who is accompanied by a support person be prevented from having access to his or her support person while on our premises.
